

INDEX TO VOLUMES VI-XV (1969-1978)

Compiled and edited by John Newman and James Deay, with the assistance of James Cleaver, Kathy Kelley, Kristin Steiner, Harriet Tague, Gayle Wernsman and Polly Willman.

This index follows the format of that compiled for volumes 1 through 5 by Sidney Heitman. Together they provide access to all issues published under Dr. Heitman's editorship. The index is divided into articles and reviews, with the latter category including review essays which began to appear in volume 6, number 1, and supplanted shorter reviews entirely beginning with volume 10, number 1. Introductory essays by the book review editor are indexed when they bear specific titles, and the component works listed at the head of each review essay are cited separately. Some attention to the system of cross references will allow users to find reviews in both this index and the earlier one.

The name of the publication changed from The Rocky Mountain Social Science Journal to The Social Science Journal with the dual issue numbered both volume 12, number 3 and volume 13, number 1. In the interest of simplicity, citations for articles and reviews in this special issue are made only to volume 12, number 3.
